Corny Jokes

British English

Make a phonemic (broad) transcription of the following passage:

1.'My `‑wife's | gone to the West `Indies.
   Ja`ˌmaica?
    `ˌNo. 'She | went of her ˌown ac`cord.

2.`‑Who was that `lady | I `saw you with 'last ˌnight?
`That was no ˌlady. `That | was my `wife.

3.And 'these, | ˌladies, | are the famous `falls. If you can 'stop `talking for a ˌmoment, | you'll be able to `ˌhear | their `ˌmighty `roar.

4.Waiter, there's a fly in my soup.
Then perhaps you'd prefer a red wine, sir.

5.Why do you always answer me by asking another question?
Do I?

6.Am I the first man who's ever kissed you?
Of course, you are, darling. You boys all ask the same silly questions.
